

Flex Thursdays at Dan Knott

Students at Dan Knott have the unique opportunity to choose their Thursday Flex schedule. Thursdays begin in Home Room classes from 8:35 – 9:05 and this is followed by four one hour classes. Students have the option to choose one or more sessions relating to their core academic subjects and up to three sessions that they are passionate about. This self-directed learning is a fantastic opportunity for students to become engaged in their learning. Thursdays at Dan Knott are all about student choice and student voice!
